Subject:
Florida Statewide Republican Primary Election survey conducted for FloridaPolitics.com

Date: December 15, 2015

Executive Summary:

This poll of 2,694 Florida active Republican primary voters was conducted from Monday, December 14, 2015 to Tuesday, December 15, 2015. This poll used the registered voter lists supplied by the state of Florida as of September 17, 2015. The sample of voters that were contacted included random samples of registered Republican voters within the boundaries of the state of Florida.

The issues surveyed included questions related to the 2016 Republican Florida primary elections.

Methodology:

The poll was conducted through an automated phone call polling system. The results were then weighted to account for proportional differences between the respondents' demographics and the demographics of the active Republican primary election voter population for the state of Florida. The weighting demographics used were: race, age, gender and media market.

The voters polled were chosen at random within the registered voter population within the state of Florida. The random sample used was made up of a sampling of registered Republican party voters from the state of Florida. Only registered Republican voters that voted in a primary election in 2012 or 2014 were included in these results.

The scientific results shown for the questions below have a sample size of 2,694 and a 1.9% Margin of Error at a 95% confidence level.
