Subject: Florida State House District 58 Special Primary Election Survey conducted for FloridaPolitics.com

Date: October 8, 2017

Executive Summary:

This poll of 358 Florida registered voters was conducted on October 8th, 2017. This poll used the registered voter lists supplied by the state of Florida as of September 12th, 2017. The sample of voters that were contacted included random samples of registered voters within the boundaries of the 58th Florida State House district.

The issues surveyed included questions related to the 2017 special election.

Methodology:

The poll was conducted by an automated phone call polling system. The results were then weighted to account for proportional differences between the respondents' demographics and the demographics of the registered Republican voter population for the 58th Florida State House district. The demographics used were: race, age and gender.

The sample of voters polled was chosen at random within the registered voter population within the 58th Florida State House district. Only those voters who stated that they were planning to vote or had already voted were included in the results below.

The scientific results shown for the questions below have a sample size of 358 and a 5.2% Margin of Error at a 95% confidence level.
