Subject: Florida State House District 72 Special Election Survey conducted for FloridaPolitics.com

Date: January 23, 2018

Executive Summary:

This poll of 714 Florida likely voters was conducted on January 23rd, 2018. This poll used the registered voter lists supplied by the state of Florida as of January 9th, 2018. The sample of voters that were contacted included random samples of registered voters within the boundaries of the 72nd Florida State House district.

The issues surveyed included questions related to the 2018 special election.

Methodology:

The poll was conducted by an automated phone call polling system. The results were then weighted to account for proportional differences between the respondents' demographics and the demographics of the active voter population for the 72nd Florida State House district. The demographics used were: political party, race, age and gender.

The sample of voters polled was chosen at random within the registered voter population within the 72nd Florida State House district. Only those voters who stated that they were planning to vote or had already voted in the special election were included in the results below.

The scientific results shown for the questions below have a sample size of 714 and a 3.7% Margin of Error at a 95% confidence level.
