Subject: Florida Statewide Republican Governor Primary Election survey conducted for FloridaPolitics.com

Date: August 23, 2018

Executive Summary:

This poll of 2,141 likely Florida Republican primary voters was conducted from August 22, 2018 to August 23, 2018. This poll used the registered voter lists supplied by the state of Florida as of July 10, 2018. The sample of voters that were contacted included random samples of registered voters within the boundaries of the state of Florida.

The issues surveyed included questions related to Florida's 2018 Republican Primary Election.

Methodology:

The poll was conducted through an automated phone call polling system. The results were then weighted to account for proportional differences between the respondents' demographics and the demographics of the active Republican primary voter population for the state of Florida. The weighting demographics used were: race, age, gender and media market.

The voters polled were chosen at random within the registered Republican voter population within the state of Florida. Voters who said they were not planning to vote were excluded from the results below.

The scientific results shown for the questions below have a sample size of 2,141 and a 2.1% Margin of Error at a 95% confidence level.
